

Kim Worrell is a passionate presenter of God’s word who challenges women to press in to the place of “further still” in their relationship with the Lord. Her heartbeat in ministry is to see women deepen their intimacy with Christ and step out in radical obedience to all He asks of them. She believes that through such full surrender, God’s kingdom purposes will be unleashed in our military communities.

An Army wife for over 29 years, Kim feels blessed by the literal opportunity the military lifestyle and PWOC have provided to “teach all nations.” She has been a keynote speaker and workshop presenter at women’s events in Alaska, Korea, Japan, Germany, and numerous stateside locations. Kim is married to Hal, who completed his final duty assignment at Virginia Military Institute this past August. The Worrells have four children ranging in age from 17 to 27.

Kim served as 2nd Vice President of PWOC USA from 2002-2004 and as President of PWOC USA/International from 2004-2006, stewarding the ministry through the realignment of PWOC USA and PWOC Europe into one international network. She subsequently served as Advisor to the PWOC-I President (2006-2008) and as a member the PWOC-I Ministry Prayer Team (2008-2010). She continues to equip and encourage PWOC leaders as a W.I.L.D. Trainer.

A published author (God Answers Military Prayers), Kim currently serves on staff as the Training Coordinator at Church of the Holy Spirit in Roanoke, Virginia.
